Dear Tony:

Thank you for the Friedman photographs and also for the inventory of the material from the Friedman Correspondence. As usual, we are in your debt for your highly professional work and splendid cooperation.

The bill for the photographs will, I hope, go through the mill promptly.

I hope you will understand that, when we brought unseasonably cold weather to Virginia in November, we had no idea what we were starting.

Sorry I missed you at the AHA meeting, but I had one encounter with David Kahn, after which I did not tarry.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Vincent J. Wilson, Jr.
